

Division of Equity and Inclusion | deicomm@uoregon.edu
<http://inclusion.uoregon.edu>

Melissa Lozada-Oliva CLLAS
Latinx Heritage Month Events

- CLLAS Teach-In: Language & Poetry as Resistance with Melissa Lozada-Oliva. Oct 9, 10-11am, Knight Library Browsing Room
- CLLAS Latinx Heritage Month Poetry Slam by Melissa Lozada-Oliva. Oct 9, 4-5pm, 240C McKenzie

UO Common Reading
Under the Feet of Jesus
Helena María Viramontes Events

Hope to Resist: Battling Erasure and Inserting Our Histories into National Narratives. Oct 21, 4-6pm. EMU

Language as Action: Reading & Conversation: Helena María Viramontes Oct 22, 6- 8pm, Eugene Public Library.

Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art

"Resistance as Power: A Curatorial Response to 'Under the Feet of Jesus'"
Sept 7 - Feb 23

“Day of the Dead: Hanging Altars of Coatetelco and Other Expressions from Morelos” lecture with photographer Fernando Soto. Oct 30, 5:30 pm. In Spanish and English.

Dia de los Muertos/Day of the Dead. Nov 1 and Nov 2, 6-9pm. Altars with offerings and traditional art, music, dance, food, flowers, and poetry

Community Events

Hispanic Heritage Month Breakfast
Salem, Sept 16

Traditional Dress & Mexican Horseman or Charro Equipment
Springfield Museum,
Sept 13-Oct 26

Celebración de la Herencia Hispana & El Grito
Springfield, Sept 13

Fiesta Cultural
Lane County
Sept - Dec

Dr. Yvette Alex-Assensoh, Vice President for the Division of Equity And Inclusion

"Too often, we view history as static; a set of facts to be observed rather than celebrated; ideas that have been memorialized rather than tools for constructing a better present. As a result, history is sometimes devalued, especially in regards to marginalized communities, and it ultimately works to the detriment of us all. This is why Latinx Heritage Month is so important, especially in 2019..." Read more

UO Latinx Heritage Month Events

Latinx Strategies Group

Latinx Heritage Month on the UO Homepage
starting Sept 16

UO Honors Latinx Heritage Month
by DEI VP Dr. Yvette Alex-Assensoh

Smithsonian Latino Center

DONATE